Intelligence Director Speaks at Barracks

Robert Amory, Jr., deputy director of Intelligence of the Central Intelligence Agency, addressed students at the Army War College at the Carlisle Barracks yesterday on the current world situation.

A former member of the faculty of the Harvard Law School, Amory commanded a battalion of the 553rd Engineer Boat and Shore Regiment through the New Britain, Luzon and Southern Phillipine campaigns. He commanded the same regiment in Japan from 1945 to 1946.
